The Champagne Fair Association, alarmed at the immediate prospect of foreclosure of the mortgage on its beautiful fair grounds adjoining Champagne, on Saturday voted unanimously to give its property in trust to a committee of ten, who would pay the debt and become its owners. All stock becomes forfeited unless the holders volunteer an assessment city promptly. Nov2d4f

Among those who so promptly assisted Steward Magee at the recent confagration at the county poor farm, was Superintendent Barber, who hurried to the scene from his residence, over a mile distant, as soon as he saw the flames arising from the burning buildings. When he reached the spot the fire was raging so fiercely that he could not get within 100 feet of the doomed buildings, but he did not remain idle. He at once aided Steward Magee in removing the patients and paupers to the Renshaw school house, and as quickly as possible sent messengers to Decatur to communicate the news of the fire to the county authorities here. By Mr. Barber's prompt action, and also that of Supervisors Hill and Freeman, Sheriff Foster and Overseer Newell, the homeless paupers and patients were given comfortable quarters in this city immediately.
Prof. FERGUSON, a stranger in this community, gave an exhibition of his skill as a musician at the tab roller skating rink Saturday evening in the presence of a large number of people. The professor accomplished the remarkable feat of playing upon five different instruments at one time, and played pretty good music.
He used his hands, mouth and feet, and gave a fair imitation of a brass band coming around a corner. The professor is advertised to play again at the rink to-night.
JUDGE SMITH did not arrive in the city to-day in time to reopen court at 9 a. m., and during the forenoon a large number of witnesses who had been summoned to testify in people's cases stood around in the court room waiting for the "exercises to begin." Among the crowd were eight or ten young men who hailed their friends as they entered with the queer query:
"Hi, hi! Are you nailed to the cross?" Two Decatur business men did not "fill up with spirits" Saturday evening and kick over signs as reported. The vandalism was perpetrated by a journeyman tailor and a journeyman shoemaker who were out on a little lark. Little or no damage was done and the signs were replaced, as commanded by the officer.
ALFONSO FLORIN and Augustus Cuzlett, members of the Assumption Whisky Club, were arraigned in the United States District Court at Springfield, Saturday, on a charge of violating the revenue law by selling liquor on which the Government tax had not been paid. They pleaded guilty, and each was fined $1 and costs.
The next entertainment at the opera house will be the appearance, on Saturday evening next, of "Dick's Original Georgia Minstrels," just returned from a two-years' trip around the world. The troupe includes 27 genuine colored artists.
From Pike's Peak.
The daily Republican, published at Colorado Springs, Colorado, within 5 miles of Pike's Peak, by A. H. Corman, formerly of this city, gives place to the following editorial mention, under date of the 5th:
"The Daily Republican, of Decatur, Ill., one of our most valued exchanges, starts out on the new year with new type and other evidences of prosperity."

The Poor House Question.
A meeting of the voters of Friend's Creek Township will be held at Argenta on Monday, January 16th, at 1 p. m., when the matter of building a new poor house will be discussed. The Supervisor of that township, Mr. Van Leer, will be instructed as to what course his constituents wish him to pursue in the matter.
A similar meeting of the voters of Whitmore Township will be held at Oremia on the same day, at the same hour.
Another Big Purchase.
The other day we made mention of the fact that Mr. F. F. Randolph of this city, had purchased the D. W. Brennan residence property for $14,000, and now comes the news found in the columns of the Mattoon Gazette, that Mr. Randolph has made another big purchase. The Gazette says he has bought a coal bro's flouring mill at Charleston, Ill., for $10-000, and that possession will be given on Feb. 1st. There must be a big "spec" in that mill or "flour" would never have touched it.
$700,000.
Danville News, 7th:—H. C. Townsend, general ticket and passenger agent of the Wabash, St. Louis & Pacific system, says that the passenger earnings of the Wabash road proper, in the year 1881, were the largest of any year in the history of the road, being in round numbers $700,000 in excess of the earnings of the main line in 1880. The earnings of the other division controlled by the W. St. L. & P., show an increase of nearly $200,000 over those of 1880.

A Poor Merchant Held.
The attending physicians held a post mortem examination last week on the body of the late Jacob W. Colladay, Jr., whose death occurred at the home of Mr.
Henry Martin, north of Decatur, as was recorded in these columns. It was stated in that notice that Colladay had died of enlargement of the liver, but the cause of the post mortem was held. It was then discovered that the deceased had received several severe blows on his body in the region of the stomach. Those blows the unfortunate man had received during last summer. One day he went into Mr. Martin's barn and two frenzied mules in the stalls commenced kicking wildly. They got Colladay into a corner, and would have killed him outright had not Mr. Martin entered the barn in time to save his brother-in-law. The injuries then received by Colladay were not considered serious, and were treated as slight bruises; but a few days afterward the injured man began feeling unwell, but the cause of his illness was attributed to other causes than the kicks of the brutes. He became worse as the weeks and months went by, and finally he was compelled to seek his bed, upon which he remained until he died.

Remember
That the New York Store was first to break the regime of high prices, and shall always be found in the lead with good goods and lowest prices. Buying all goods for spot cash, they cannot be undersold. Special inducements during the next few days, previous to stock-taking.
Examination of bargains solicited.

scribed. Each person paying $1 toward the fund will receive a handsome certificate.

The Circuit Court.
Business in the Macon County Circuit Court was resumed this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, Judge Smith presiding. A number of motions were entertained and the court announced his readiness to hear the balance of testimony in an unfinished case. State's Attorney Johns announced that all witnesses in all cases against Mrs.
Elizabeth Davis would be relieved from further attendance at court until Wednesday morning. The judge put a P. S. to this notice by saying that witnesses in all cases who had been subpoenaed and failed to come in court on time, would be attached and fined heavily as provided by law.
Col. H. W. Rowell in Luck.
The many Decatur friends of Col. H.
W. Rowell, of this city, will be pleased to learn that he has succeeded in obtaining an important clerkship in the office of the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives at Washington, D. C. We glean the information from the columns of the Washington Evening Critic, which says:
"Mr. Henry W. Rowell, of Illinois, has been appointed to service in the office of the Clerk of the House in place of Mr. E.
S. Donnelly, Jr., and Mr. Samuel E. Guinner, of Pennsylvania, in place of Mr.
George S. Chilton.
The Colonel was aware of his appointment to this position before leaving Decatur for Washington about two weeks ago, and he is now at his desk at the National capital. His duties will be somewhat miscellaneous in character, but most of his time will be devoted to keeping the financial record in proper shape.
Mrs. Rowell, who is still in Decatur, is making arrangements to go to Washington, and will leave for that city within a month. The Colonel's salary is about $8 per day.
A False Statement Corrected.
In view of the fact that it has been asserted and circulated in the Cross Roads district that the Teacher, Thomas W. Jacobs, had indirectly allowed his pupils to know what the questions were to be at the prize examination held during last winter, and particularly in reference to the spelling examination, we, the undersigned, hereby certify that we were members of the school and that such statements are false in every particular.

Kid Gloves.
We have taken special pains to procure a first-class glove, a glove that we can safely warrant, and retail at a dollar and a dollar and a quarter respectively.
The former, the Le Grand, at $1.00, is a first class glove—first class in every way, and the price, one dollar, less by far than any glove of equal quality was ever sold in thisburgh. Our three-book genuine Foster Glove at $1.25, is unequalled for the price. We guarantee all these goods.

"Grand Change."
President Gould, of the great Wabash line, whose preferred stock for some reason or other is now quoted as low as 68 and a fraction, is in St. Louis, looking around like the active general that he is.
Many speculations have been rife as to what he would do in case he became the chief boss of the Wabash system, and we glean a few points from the Globe-Democrat of Sunday, which says: Heretofore the Wabash, St. Louis & Pacific Railroad has been operated under the direction of three general superintendents, namely: T. McKissock, St.
Louis; Robert Andrews, Toledo, and W.
F. Merrill, Chicago. The policy of the road has been changed, and the superintendency will now pass into the hands of one person, Col. Robert Andrews being assigned to the position.
George H. Daniels, general ticket agent of the Wabash, sent in his resignation yesterday, and the ticket and passenger departments were immediately consolidated under the management of H. C.
Townsend. The freight department has not yet been reached, but it is probable that the changes predicted will be made.

PERSONAL MENTION.
John B. Lichtenberger, a merchant of Sauganau, was in the city Saturday.
Dr. S. C. Ham, the Argenta physician, was in the city Saturday.
Miss Lizzie E. Lukens is quite ill at her home, west of the city.
Frank Boyd, formerly the proprietor of the "English Kitchen" in this city, has gone to Carlinville.
Charles Montgomery came up from St.
Louis Saturday and spent Sunday in Decatur.
Rev. F. W. Maynard has left the city, leaving the same night he had that column card printed.
Judge Smith arrived in the city this noon from Champagne, and registered at the St. Nicholas.
Elder J. Z. Tyler, of Richmond, Va., is expected to arrive in Decatur this evening, and will preach at the Christian Church to-morrow (Tuesday) evening.
Charles A. Fearing and "Glad" Gorin have formed a partnership and will furnish antiquated jokes to the anxious millions on application. Sent 11 and 13 cent stamps to secure a speedy reply.
Miss Irene Thatchner went to Knoxville, Tn., last week, to enter the seminary at which so many of Decatur's young ladies have been educated, and she writes to her parents that she is highly delighted with the school.
Amos Bann has retired as editor of the Decatur Sunday Blade, and C. R. Spore, the "reporter on the fly," is now in full charge. Mr. Spore is a versatile scribe and has plenty of determination. He will doubtless make the Blade a success, and retire with fortune or its equivalent.
Rev. Dr. Ryder, pastor of St. Paul's (Universalist) church, Chicago, who has occupied the Universalist pulpit in this city, has given notice that he will, inside of three months, resign the position he has held for 22 years. Dr. Ryder is now 60 years old, and wants rest. The name of Dr. Thomas is mentioned in connection with the prospective vacancy.
Pard Noble, who deserted his lucrative "posish" with Manager Haines to take chances on raking in the golden ducats in the great and wicked city of Chicago, was heard from this morning. He has anchored temporarily in Milwaukee, where the amber beverage is an plentiful, and favors us with a copy of Peck's funny Sun, of the 7th inst.

J. A. Boynton, of Monmouth, ex-president of the Illinois State Firemen's Association, arrived in the city on Saturday, and remained here over Sunday.
He has been wrestling with a severe attack of neuralgia in his face, but was able to converse with his friends in his usual pleasant manner. He left for Mon-tello to-day in the interest of a Monmouth manufacturing firm.
Jeshua Kaylor, who resides four miles west of Decatur, was in town on Sunday at about noon, and appeared to be very much disappointed because the Wabash did not run a train to Oremia, eight miles distant. Kaylor wore a pair of gun boots and carried a nice pair of leather boots wrapped up in paper under one arm. He said he must reach Oremia by 4 o'clock that afternoon, because he had agreed to be there at that hour and marry Miss Matilda C. Priser; and the last seen of Jeshua, he was making rapid strides for the home of Matilda. He probably got there before dark.

SOME THINGS WE DO NOT NEED TO BLOW ABOUT.
1st.—About the space of our Storeroom; because one glance convinces you, that it is the largest, airiest, and best lighted Clothing Store in Decatur.
2nd.—About the winding stairway leading to our up-stairs Merchant Tailoring Department; because we see nothing on it to blow about.
3rd.—About our increasing business; because we take it as a natural consequence of our endeavors to please our patrons.
4th.—About our Large Stock; because comparison will tell who is bragging.
5th.—About the quality of our stock; because the eating of the pudding is the proof.
6th.—About the low selling price on all goods; because our low prices have earned us the name, "LEADER OF POPULAR PRICES." 7th.—About our guaranteeing every article we sell; because that is a rule of our store, made known in our first advertisement.
In conclusion, we would call your attention to the fact that Our MERCHANT TAILORING DEPARTMENT is under the personal surveillance of FLEURY, the French Cutter.
All Goods are made at Home (not in the wholesale shops in the East) and sold at popular prices.
We stock with the best Goods, adapted for all classes of Trade.

As those who so promptly assisted Steward Magee at the recent conflagration at the county poor farm, was Superintendent Barber, who hurried to the scene from his residence, over a mile distant, as soon as he saw the flames arising from the burning buildings. When he reached the spot the fire was raging so fiercely that he could not get within 100 feet of the doomed buildings, but he did not remain idle. He at once aided Steward Magee in removing the patients and patients from the Renshaw school house, and as quickly as possible sent messengers to Decatur to communicate the news of the fire to the county authorities here. By Mr. Barber's prompt action, and also that of Supervisors Hill and Freeman, Sheriff Foster and Overseer Nowell, the homeless paupers and patients were given comfortable quarters in this city immediately.

PROF. FERGUSON, a stranger in this community, gave an exhibition of his skill as a musician at the tab roller skating rink Saturday evening in the presence of a large number of people. The professor accomplished the remarkable feat of playing upon five different instruments at one time, and made pretty good music. He used his hands, mouth and feet, and gave a fair imitation of a brass band coming around a corner. The professor is advertised to play again at the rink to-night.

JAMES SMITH did not arrive in the city to-day in time to reopen court at 9 a. m., and during the forenoon a large number of witnesses who had been summoned to testify in people's cases stood around in the court room waiting for the "exercise to begin." Among the crowd were eight or ten young men who hailed their friends as they entered with the queer query: "Hi, hi! Are you nailed to the cross?"

Two Decatur business men did not "fill up with spirits" Saturday evening and kick over signs as reported. The vandalism was perpetrated by a journeyman tailor and a journeyman shoemaker who were out on a little lark. Little or no damage was done and the signs were replaced, as commanded by the officer.

ALPHONSO PIERON and Augustus Cazlett, members of the Assumption Whisky Club, were arraigned in the United States District Court at Springfield, Saturday, on a charge of violating the revenue law by selling liquor on which the Government tax had not been paid. They pleaded guilty, and each was fined $1 and costs.

The next entertainment at the opera house will be the appearance, on Saturday evening next, of "Hick's Original Georgia Minstrels," just returned from a two-years' trip around the world. The troupe includes 27 genuine colored artists.

From Pike's Peak.
The daily Republican, published at Colorado Springs, Colorado, within 5 miles of Pike's Peak, by A. H. Corman, formerly of this city, gives place to the following editorial mention, under date of the 5th: "The Daily Republican, of Decatur, Ill., one of our most valued exchanges, starts out on the new year with new type and other evidences of prosperity."

The Poor House Question.
A meeting of the voters of Friend's Creek Township will be held at Argenta on Monday, January 16th, at 1 p. m., when the matter of building a new poor house will be discussed. The Supervisor of that township, Mr. Van Leer, will be instructed as to what course his constituents wish him to pursue in the matter.

A similar meeting of the voters of Whitmore Township will be held at Orem on the same day, at the same hour.

Another Big Purchase.
The other day we made mention of the fact that Mr. F. E. Randolph of this city, had purchased the D. W. Brennehan residence property for $14,000, and now comes the news found in the columns of the Mattoon Gazette, that Mr. Randolph has made another big purchase. The Gazette says he has bought a coal brook, flooring mill at Charleston, Ill., for $10,000, and that possession will be given on Feb. 1st. There must be a big "spec" in that mill or "Ran" would never have touched it.

Danville News, 7th:—H. C. Townsend, general ticket and passenger agent of the Wabash, St. Louis & Pacific system, says that the passenger earnings of the Wabash road proper, in the year 1881, were the largest of any year in the history of the road, being in round numbers $700,000 in excess of the earnings of the main line in 1880. The earnings of the other division controlled by the W. St. L. & P., show an increase of nearly $200,000 over those of 1880.

Note the bargains offered at the New York Store, and remember they always advertise just what they mean. See their advertisement in this paper.

A Post Mortem Held.
The attending physicians held a post mortem examination last week on the body of the late Jacob W. Colladay, Jr., whose death occurred at the home of Mr. Henry Martin, north of Decatur, as was recorded in these columns. It was stated in that notice that Colladay had died of enlargement of the liver, but the cause of the enlargement was unknown until after the post mortem was held. It was then discovered that the deceased had received several severe blows on his body in the region of the stomach. Those blows the unfortunate man had received during last summer. One day he went into Mr. Martin's barn and two fractions miles in the stalls commenced kicking wildly. They got Colladay into a corner, and he was killed him outright had not Mr. Martin entered the barn in time to save his brother-in-law. The injuries then received by Colladay were not considered serious, and were treated as slight bruises; but a few days afterward the injured man began feeling unwell, but the cause of his illness was attributed to other causes than the kicks of the brutes. He became worse as the weeks and months went by, and finally he was compelled to seek his bed, upon which he remained until he died.

Remember
That the New York Store was first to break the regime of high prices, and shall always be found in the lead with good goods and lowest prices. Buying all goods for spot cash; they cannot be undersold. Special inducements during the next few days, previous to stock-taking. Extermination of bargains solicited. Respectfully.

So far $111 of the $200 have been subscribed. Each person paying $1 toward the fund will receive a handsome certificate.

The Circuit Court.
Business in the Macon County Circuit Court was resumed this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, Judge Smith presiding. A number of motions were entertained and the court announced his readiness to hear the balance of testimony in an unfinished case. State's Attorney Johns announced that all witnesses in all cases against Mrs. Elizabeth Davis would be relieved from further attendance at court until Wednesday morning. The judge put a P. S. to this notice by saying that witnesses in all cases who had been subpoenaed and failed to come in court on time, would be attached and fined heavily as provided by law.

Col. H. W. Rowell in Luck.
The many Decatur friends of Col. H. W. Rowell, of this city, will be pleased to learn that he has succeeded in obtaining an important clerkship in the office of the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives at Washington, D. C. We glean the information from the columns of the Washington Evening Critic, which says:

Mr. Henry W. Rowell, of Illinois, has been appointed to service in the office of the Clerk of the House in place of Mr. E. S. Doughty, Jr., and Mr. Samuel F. Guinner, of Pennsylvania, in place of Mr. George S. Chilton.

The Colonel was aware of his appointment to this position before leaving Decatur for Washington about two weeks ago, and he is now at his desk at the National capital. His duties will be somewhat miscellaneous in character, but most of his time will be devoted to keeping the financial record in proper shape. Mrs. Rowell, who is still in Decatur, is making arrangements to go to Washington, and will leave for that city within a month. The Colonel's salary is about $8 per day.

A False Statement Corrected.
In view of the fact that it has been asserted and circulated in the Cross Roads district that the Teacher, Thomas W. Jacobs, had indirectly allowed his pupils to know what the questions were to be at the prize examination held during last winter, and particularly in reference to the spelling examination, we, the undersigned, hereby certify that we were members of the school and that such statements are false in every particular.

Mar. Henry Oliver Phillips, Willie Price, Laura Price, Fred Moore, Eric Henry, Nora Smith, John Smith, Alice Rose, Hattie Jacobs, Mattie Jacobs, Maggie Good, August Nebo, Charles Jacobs, Andrew Smith, Thomas Smith, Kelly Oiler, Chas. Le Rose, Neddy Gorman, John Wray, Frank Blair, Deak Carter.

Kid Gloves.
We have taken special pains to procure a first-class glove, a glove that we can safely warrant, and retail at a dollar and a dollar and a quarter respectively. The former, the Le Grand, at $1.00, is a first class glove—first class in every way, and the price, one dollar, less by far than any glove of equal quality was ever sold in this burgh. Our three-hook genuine Foster Glove at $1.25, is unexcelled for the price. We guarantee all these goods.

"Grand Change."
President Gould, of the great Wabash line, whose preferred stock for some reason or other is now quoted as low as 68 and a fraction, is in St. Louis, looking around like the active general that he is. Many speculations have been rife as to what he would do in case he became the chief boss of the Wabash system, and we glean a few points from the Globe-Democrat of Sunday, which says:

Heretofore the Wabash, St. Louis & Pacific Railroad has been operated under the direction of three general superintendents, namely: T. McKissack, St. Louis; Robert Andrews, Toledo, and W. F. Merrill, Chicago. The policy of the road has been changed, and the superintendency will now pass into the hands of one person, Col. Robert Andrews being assigned to the position.

George H. Daniels, general ticket agent of the Wabash, sent in his resignation yesterday, and the ticket and passenger departments were immediately consolidated under the management of H. C. Townsend. The freight department has not yet been reached, but it is probable that the changes predicted will be made.

PERSONAL MENTION.

John B. Lichtenberger, a merchant of Sengamon, was in the city Saturday.

Dr. S. C. Ham, the Argenta physician, was in the city Saturday.

Miss Lizzie E. Lukens is quite ill at her home, west of the city.

Frank Boyd, formerly the proprietor of the "English Kitchen" in this city, has gone to Carlinville.

Charles Montgomery came up from St. Louis Saturday and spent Sunday in Decatur.

Rev. E. W. Maynard has left the city, leaving the same night he had that column card printed.

Judge Smith arrived in the city this noon from Champagne, and registered at the St. Nicholas.

Elder J. Z. Tyler, of Richmond, Va., is expected to arrive in Decatur this evening, and will preach at the Christian Church to-morrow (Tuesday) evening.

Charles A. Ewing and "Glad" Gorin have formed a copartnership and will furnish antiquated jokes to the anxious millions on application. Send 11 and 13 cent stamps to secure a speedy reply.

Miss Irene Thatcher went to Knoxville, Ill., last week, to enter the seminary at which so many of Decatur's young ladies have been educated, and she writes to her parents that she is highly delighted with the school.

Annes Bann has retired as editor of the Decatur Sunday Blade, and C. R. Spore, the "porter on the fly," is now in full charge. Mr. Spore is a versatile scribe and has plenty of determination. He will doubtless make the Blade a success, and retire with fortune or its equivalent.

Rev. Dr. Ryder, pastor of St. Paul's (Universalist) church, Chicago, who has occupied the Universalist pulpit in this city, has given notice that he will, inside of three months, resign the position he has held for 22 years. Dr. Ryder is now 60 years old, and wants rest. The name of Dr. Thomas is mentioned in connection with the prospective vacancy.

Pard Noble, who deserted his lucrative "posish" with Manager Haines to take chances on raking in the golden ducats in the great and wicked city of Chicago, was heard from this morning. He has anchored temporarily in Milwaukee, where the amber beverage is so plentiful, and favors us with a copy of Peck's funny Sm, of the 7th inst.

J. A. Boynton, of Monmouth, ex-president of the Illinois State Firemen's Association, arrived in the city on Saturday, and remained here over Sunday. He has been wrestling with a severe attack of neuralgia in his face, but was able to converse with his friends in his usual pleasant manner. He left for Monticello to-day in the interest of a Monmouth manufacturing firm.

Josiah Kaylor, who resides four miles west of Decatur, was in town on Sunday at about noon, and appeared to be very much disappointed because the Wabash did not run a train to Orem, eight miles distant. Kaylor wore a pair of gum boots and carried a nice pair of leather boots wrapped up in paper under one arm. He said he must reach Orem by 4 o'clock that afternoon, because he had agreed to be there at that hour and marry Miss Matilda C. Priser; and the last seen of Joshua, he was making rapid strides for the home of Matilda. He probably got there before dark.
